REC

Find the perfect candidate thanks to our intuitive, easy-to-use solution for finding and hiring employees.

Build a strong team with Nethris

Post your job offers everywhere, quickly

Share your job offers on your website and on Indeed®, Jobboom®, ZipRecruiter® and LinkedIn® simultaneously in just a few clicks.

Build an impressive candidate pool

Keep top candidates in your database. Instantly convert résumés received via email into profiles that you can view.

Narrow your search to find the perfect fit

Search your database for candidates based on their place of residence, skills, education, salary expectations, or other criteria.

Features

Search for nearby candidates

The integration of Google® Maps allows you to find candidates who live near the workplace you are proposing.

Interview calendar

Avoid scheduling conflicts by planning your interviews in a calendar synchronized with your Microsoft® Office 365® or Gmail® account.

Confirm interviews by SMS and email

When an interview is added to your calendar, a confirmation SMS and email will be sent to the candidate. Say goodbye to ambiguity.

Employment contracts

Create employment contract templates based on your needs. The candidate's information will be automatically entered in the contract upon creation.

History

Have a feeling you've already met a candidate who would be good for the job? Consult your recruitment activity history to find them.

Electronic document management

Attach documents and consolidate interview follow-ups, aptitude tests, medical assessments, and more in the candidate profile.

Eliminate duplicate profiles

The solution automatically identifies and notifies you of duplicate candidate profiles—all you have to do is delete them.

Share candidate profiles

Send top candidate profiles to your team members to get their impressions.

Send mass emails

Email job offers to multiple candidates in your database at the same time, in just minutes. The SMS option is also available.
